Chairman's Message

John C. Randolph

As we wrap up another season, I think about the many challenges the world has faced with the increase in hate crimes, anti-Semitism, divisive and disrespectful dialogue, racial tensions, and bullying, and the importance, more than ever, of the Fellowship's efforts to illuminate and eliminate these issues. While we are affected by these national and international problems, we feel limited in the impact we can make on them unless we realize that we can start here, in our local community. By working together and focusing attention on the changes, however small, that we can make to foster civil interactions, improve relationships with people unlike ourselves, develop empathy, celebrate diversity, and embrace fairness and equality, there is no limit to what we can accomplish.

As we move forward, let us take inspiration from Anne Frank, who wrote, “How wonderful it is that nobody need wait a single moment before starting to improve the world.”

The moment is now. We will continue to provide meaningful programs and events in support of our mission. We will continue to build bridges with people of all backgrounds. We will continue to come together to show our solidarity and share our grief when tragedy strikes, and take action to prevent such tragedies from happening again. We will continue to support educators and young people to ensure a positive future for generations to come. We will continue to promote the ideals needed to build a better community for all.

We encourage you to add your voice to ours and your neighbors through your participation and commitment to the work of the Fellowship. Let us not wait a single moment more to start improving our world.

May Day Soirée

Members celebrate the end of the 2018-2019 Season at the Annual Meeting and Student Competition Awards Ceremony

More than 140 Fellowship members and guests came together at the lovely outdoor Palm Court at The Colony Hotel on May 1 to bring the season to a close. Following inspiring welcoming remarks from Board Chair Skip Randolph, Vice Chair Maggie Zeidman recapped the season with a slide presentation featuring photos of the programs and events. She also talked about the Fellowship's strong commitment to sending educators to Facing History and Ourselves seminars (see article on next page) and introduced Anne Franzen, one of the teachers who received a full scholarship from the Fellowship to attend "The Holocaust and Human Behavior" last summer.

Following Franzen's comments, Education Co-Chair Charles Hagy presented awards for the 2019 Essay and Creative Arts Student Competition. Open to middle and high school students in public and private schools in Palm Beach County, winning students received cash prizes for their entries on the topic "Hope." (Visit www.palmbeachfellowship.net to view the winning entries.) The supervising teachers of winning students received monetary support for school supplies, funded by the proceeds of a "Happy Hour for a Cause" by the West Palm 100 service organization.

Anne Franzen, an eighth grade social studies teacher at The Benjamin School, shares highlights of the FHAO seminar she attended in July 2018, "The Holocaust and Human Behavior," and how she implemented the curriculum in her classes during the 2018-2019 school year. She made the presentation at the May 1 Annual Meeting.

Ten Teachers Heading to Facing History and Ourselves Seminars in July

The Palm Beach Fellowship of Christians & Jews has again awarded full scholarships to local educators to attend summer seminars hosted by Facing History and Ourselves (FHAO), a Brookline, Massachusetts-based educational and professional development organization. The Fellowship has been sending teachers to FHAO workshops for more than 20 years and considers it to be one of its most important projects. Past attendees describe the experience as life-changing and attest to the impact on their students.

Eight teachers will attend "The Holocaust and Human Behavior" in Memphis, Tennessee, July 16-18. With Holocaust education mandated but unfunded in Florida, the training and materials the teachers receive provide them with the vital resources needed in their classrooms, school, and, by extension, the community. The Fellowship maintains contact with the teachers upon their return to ensure implementation of the program and connection with their fellow FHAO alums.

Two educators who have attended the Holocaust and civil rights-related seminars in the past will be attending the "Beyond Borders" workshop in Boston, Massachusetts, July 9-11. This will enable them to build upon the lessons they received in the previous seminars to enhance the impact and effectiveness of their ongoing programs.

Attending "The Holocaust and Human Behavior"
Robert Bayless, The Benjamin School
Mary Cooney, St. Ann Catholic School
Nathan Ginnetty, The Benjamin School
Martyna Klebacka, Loggers Run Middle School
Amanda Ladd, Eagles Landing Middle School
Bridget Langford, The Gulf Stream School
Kyle Schlett, Palm Beach Day Academy
Leslie Wilson, Carver Middle School

Attending "Beyond Borders"
Chrissie Ferguson, The Benjamin School
Charles Hagy, The Benjamin School

Updates about their experiences will be posted on the Fellowship's Facebook page and website.

Enter the 2020 Competition!

The Palm Beach Fellowship's Education Co-Chair Rosalie Franks has announced that the theme for the 2020 Essay and Creative Arts Student Competition is inspired by the Edgar Guest poem, "It Couldn't Be Done." Call (561) 833-6150 or write info@palmbeachfellowship.net to get the guidelines and entry form.
