Voices of Inspiration on the Subject of JUSTICE

"The best and only safe road to honor, glory, and true dignity is justice."
— George Washington

"With malice toward none; with charity for all;
with firmness in the right, as God gives us to see the right, let us strive on to finish the work we are in;
to bind up the nation's wounds; to care for him who shall have borne the battle, and for his widow, and his orphan—to do all which may achieve and cherish a just, and a lasting peace, among ourselves, and with all nations."
— Abraham Lincoln

"Arrest me for sitting on a bus? You may do that."
— Rosa Parks

"Next in importance to freedom and justice is popular education, without which neither freedom nor justice can be permanently maintained."
— James A. Garfield

"Injustice anywhere is a threat to justice everywhere. We are caught in an inescapable network of mutuality, tied in a single garment of destiny. Whatever affects one directly, affects all indirectly."
— Martin Luther King, Jr.

"Justice cannot be for one side alone, but must be for both."
— Eleanor Roosevelt

"There may be times when we are powerless to prevent injustice, but there must never be a time when we fail to protest."
— Elie Wiesel

"I am not interested in picking up crumbs of compassion thrown from the table of someone who considers himself my master.
I want the full menu of rights."
— Archbishop Desmond Tutu

"I think the first duty of society is justice."
— Alexander Hamilton

"The worst form of injustice is pretended justice."
— Plato

"I truly believe the only way we can create global peace is through not only educating our minds, but our hearts and our souls."
— Malala Yousafzai

"When you see something that is not right, not fair, not just, you have to speak up. You have to say something; you have to do something."
— John Lewis

"True peace is not merely the absence of war, it is the presence of justice."
— Jane Addams

"In matters of truth and justice, there is no difference between large and small problems, for issues concerning the treatment of people are all the same."
— Albert Einstein

"All the great things are simple, and many can be expressed in a single word: freedom, justice, honor, duty, mercy, hope."
— Winston Churchill

"The world would be a paradise of peace and justice
if global citizens shared a common definition of love which would guide our thoughts and action."
— Bell Hooks

"That Justice is a blind goddess
Is a thing to which we black are wise:
Her bandage hides two festering sores That once perhaps were eyes."
— Langston Hughes

"My work with the poor and the incarcerated has persuaded me that the opposite of poverty is not wealth; the opposite of poverty is justice."
— Bryan Stevenson

"We the People of the United States, in Order to form a more perfect Union, establish Justice, insure domestic Tranquility, provide for the common defense, promote the general Welfare, and secure the Blessings of Liberty to ourselves and our Posterity, do ordain and establish this Constitution for the United States of America."
— The Constitution of the United States of America
