Voices of Inspiration on the Power of Words and Actions

"A life is not important except in the impact it has on other lives."

— Jackie Robinson

"Life's most persistent and urgent question is, What are you doing for others?"

— Martin Luther King, Jr.

"With malice toward none; with charity for all; with firmness in the right, as God gives us to see the right, let us strive on to finish the work we are in; to bind up the nation's wounds; to care for him who shall have borne the battle, and for his widow, and his orphan—to do all which may achieve and cherish a just, and a lasting peace, among ourselves, and with all nations."

— Abraham Lincoln

"You never know when a moment and a few sincere words can have an impact on a life."

— Zig Ziglar

"Speak gently: 'tis a little thing
Dropped in the heart's deep well;
The good, the joy, which it may bring,
Eternity shall tell."

— George Washington Langford, Speak Gently

"I truly believe the only way we can create global peace is through not only educating our minds, but our hearts and our souls."

— Malala Yousafzai

"When you see something that is not right, not fair, not just, you have to speak up. You have to say something; you have to do something."

— John Lewis

"There may be times when we are powerless to prevent injustice, but there must never be a time when we fail to protest."

— Elie Wiesel

"The world would be a paradise of peace and justice if global citizens shared a common definition of love which would guide our thoughts and actions."

— Bell Hooks

"A teacher affects eternity; he can never tell where his influence stops."

— Henry Adams

"We may not realize a kind word spoken
May cheer some lonely heart that's almost broken.
We go about our daily tasks without a care
Of burdens we might lighten here or there.
Our daily occupation seems to be
So all important that we fail to see
Kind words and deeds will far outlive the rest
We say or do and that alone will make us truly blessed.
...We little know the influence of a word
For good or bad that we some bosom stirred."

— Nettie Squire Sutton, Influence

"A fundamental concern for others in our individual and community lives would go a long way in making the world the better place we so passionately dreamt of."

— Nelson Mandela

"In matters of truth and justice, there is no difference between large and small problems, for issues concerning the treatment of people are all the same."

— Albert Einstein

"We are not our best intentions. We are what we do."

— Amy Dickinson

"Each time a person stands for an ideal, or acts to improve the lot of others, or strikes out against injustice, they send a tiny ripple of hope."

— Robert Kennedy

"I cannot do all the good that the world needs, but the world needs all the good that I can do."

— Jana Stanfield

"Think twice before you speak, because your words and influence will plant the seed of either success or failure in the mind of another."

— Napoleon Hill

"Let's live our life to try to be a good example and a positive influence on someone's life."

— Porsha Williams

"No voice is too soft when that voice speaks for others."

— Janna Cachola

"Boy, take my hand and hear me when I speak.
There is the goal. In honor make the fight.
...And when at last shall come your happy day,
Enough for me that I have shown the way."

— Edgar A. Guest, Example
